DR. O. W.HULIN'S FUNERAL HELD

Sunday in Greenford Was Attended By a Multitude of People-High Tribute to a Worthy Man.

The funeral of the late Dr. O. W. Hulin, whose death was noted in the Last Dispatch, was held last Sunday afternoon. The remains were taken to the Lutheran church in the foreboon and as they laid in state were viewed by hundreds of people who came from miles around to take a last look at the face of the man who had been their friend in health and sick-Never before was a funeral held in this village when there was so much evidence of profound grief as was manifested on this occasion, The people had learned to love Dr. Hulin because of his many virtues and his passing stirred their deepest emotions. More than thirteen hundred people passed the bier of their friend many and beautiful, coming from people in every walk of life, silent evidence of the high esteem in which the ity with sorrowing friends while hunbelow. A male quartet from Youngs-Cobb, Heck, Miles and McGeorge of Salem, Buechner and Bennett of Youngstown, and Conrad of Leetonia. The remains were taken to Canfield and placed in the mausoleum in the village cemetery.

Dr. Oscar Weston Hulin

tation of His throne."

For the second time within a little comes the place for a meeting of sor- the poet sings: row and solemnity. What busy messenger of God, that grim messenger of death is. About ten days ago we He plants His footsteps in the sea, were called upon to render the last respects to the remains of one who and ten, representing the one extreme to conduct the last sad rites over and lay to rest the mortal remains of one in the prime of life, teaching us forcibly the solemn truth that death is no silk worm put into a small paper bag of ripe years, one whom we believe, or are inclined to believe, has providential government of God there finished his life's work, while parting is always painful, we are more useful service before him.

the death of a comparatively young those which pointed to the fullness of person as we are for that of an older time. There were provential trans-And ever through anxious days and nights of toll, with death he did not understand, hence he says hovering over the bed of our loved in our text, "Clouds and darkness one, we hope and hope and believe are round about God." There are and pray that a time of convalescence also similar transactions in our time and eventual recovery might be await- which we do not understand and coming our dear one. Through such days and nights, beloved, bereaved, you have recently ived, and your hopes have been liquidated, and your prayers answered with a kindly "No." You are looking to me to say something that might bring comfort and cheer to your troubled hearts. And what can I say? When President Lincoln was called upon to deliver' an address at Gettysburg on the occasion of the dedica tion of a portion of the battlefield there, to become the final resting place of the bodies of those who gave their lives that the nation might live, he said, "But in a larger sense, we cannot dedicate, we cannot conse-crate, we cannot hallow this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here have consecrated it far above our power to add or de-tract. The world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did If we are here to honor and to hallow the memory of your beloved brother, who gave his life that others might live, little will that be remembered what we may say today, but never will the community, and especially they to whom he ministered, forget what he did here. How true the saying of Christ's enemies to him when he hung on the Cross, how applicable here with a slight var-"He saved others, himself he did not save," but gave his life freely and fully in service-to others. And how comforting the other word pok-Jesus, too: Whosoever will shall save it.

Four weeks ago this evening the Doctor attended evening worship here for the last time. How little did anyone think then that four weeks hence his remains would be quietly borne to this house for this solemn service That the earthly bond of love would be severed, and that today all that is mortal of him should be hidden from your sight. And so he who was able to save the lives of many, who with the help of God Almighty was able to restore many to health, now lies before us a victim of death, mourned for by the afflicted, brothers and sisters and weeping friends. More than 20 years ago the deceas-ed returned to his home community here as a physician filled with the enthusiastic seal of a man loving his profession. Soon he was busily engaged in the arduous and strenuous he was indefatigable and ready to help wherever help was needed. By up a thriving practice and won the love and esteem of all his fellowmen. Even at a time when he himself when finally he sought medical adsun was just creeping over the horiinto the presence of Him who gave him to us. Not only I but ail of you who knew him and loved him, can exclaim with David at this hour: "I am distressed for thee my brother

And now he is no longer with us. The church has lost a faithful mem-ber; the community a Christian citzen and faithful physician.

The footsteps for which we eagerly listened, we will hear no more. The hands which lovingly ministered to our loved ones are folded on his bos-om in death. The lips to which we listened for counsel and words of hope are silenced and closed forever. We feel the deep sorrow of the sadiy afflicted sisters and brother. We share your grief, but we know also who appeared to be only peacefully can be found in God. May God Al- a short lliness "he was not, ror God sleeping. The floral tributes were mighty give you such comfort and such strength.

We believe (at least I have no evideceased was held. The funeral ser- his life, the deceased lived according vices were held at 1 p. m. in the to God's word, and therefore we feel thrilling voice: "I believe in the reschurch which was filled to 'ts capacithat the reward promised in those urrection of the dead." What a combeautiful words: "Be thou faithful undreds stood with bowed heads on the to death and I will give thee a crown outside. Rev. William Homman, pas- of life." And yet despite all we can tor of the Lutheran church, pronounc- say, and as you think of it, how dark, ed the sermon which is printed in full how mysterious it all seems to you, that he for whom and whose recovery town sang. The pallbearers were Drs. a brother's and sisters' love left noth. and puts them in a warm place; as a ing undone, should so seemingly, rudely be taken from your sides.

But if it semes dark and mysterious to you, remember our text says "Clouds and darkness are roundabout God."

God's government is one of glordarkness are round about him; right-cousness and judgment are the habi-tation of His throng." veiled from the sight of men, governs the world according to the dictates more than a week this church be- of His wisdom. Of this government

"God moves in a mysterious way, His wonders to perform;

And rides upon the storm." It is natural for us to suppose that had reached the allotted three score many of the providential works of God are covered with mystery since nature is thronged with anat which is Today it becomes our painful duty mysterious. How is it that the tender respecter of age or person. True, in its spinning casts the beautiful whenever we must lay away a percontinues to work concealed is also mystery. How was it that God who is a God of absolute holiness prepared to become reconciled and re- foreseeing the fall of man into sin But it is much more difficult when human race created man. Is it not a should have yet many years of not understand the meaning of many of the rites and ceremonies of the old We are not accustomed to look for testament dispensation, especially actions in the Psalmist's days which prehend, such as the trials and afflictions of men, particularly our own, such as have come to you now belov-> ness seem to veil his face and with complete submission pray "Lead kindly light, amid the encircling gloom;

> ed, bereaved. How unsearchable are rus judgments and His ways past finding out. Trust him, though dark-

Lead thou me on; The night of mystery is dark, and am far from home-Lead thou me on. Keep thou my feet, I do not ask to see the distant scene: One step enough for me. So long thy power has blessed me, Sure it will still lead me on

Fer moor and fen, o'er craig and tor rent till the night is gone; And with the morn these angel faces smile Which I have loved long since and lost awhile.

And yet they are his ways and the justice of His government is not to be called into question. It is proved by the use which He makes of evil, for the manifestation of His glory, and the extension of His kingdom. Pain is an evil, but it tells us when there something wrong with the body. The fall of our first parents was an evil, but out of it redemption has come. God accepted the services of a lying spirit to seduce Ahab to go en years. She had been failing grad-to Ramoth-Gilead to battle, though He ually for a long time and the end did not ordain this work. War is an when it came was not unexpected. evil but the world's Nebuchadnezzers lose his life for my sake, the same and Napoleons have been the servants late Nathaniel and Marintha Ruggles, of God. The justice of His govern-was born Feb. 20, 1827 in Broome ment is shown also in the death of our county, N. Y. When a small child ent is shown also in the death of our Lord Jesus Christ. God would not she moved with her family to Ohio save the world at the expense of justice, but would rather that the burden of the world's sin should be laid upon Kirk. Following her marriage she liv-

> Egypt He defends His people. He since coming there. She was the constantly defended his ancient peomother of four children, three of ple and the God of Daniel and Mordecal is still the same, unless truth calls Mrs. Laura E. Frederick of Boardman, for the sacrifice of the truth-bearer, and Mrs. Mary Shay of East Liveras with martyred hosts and an atoning bearer. He is ready to detend The funeral was held Monday at those who put their trust in Him. Will 10:80 a. m. at the Newton residence you trust Him-trust Him though you at Boardman. may not now understand His dealings land M. E. Church conducted the serwith you? Mysterious though his gov. vices and interment was made in the ernment is, righteousness and justice Boardman cemetery.

work of a physician. As he labored are the habitation of his throne. Soon in our community and in the sick the darkness of His dealings with you room with love and faithfulness, so he in this your sad hour of sorrow and also reaped love and confidence, the bereavement may disappear and with firm foundation of medical proficiency, the morn of understanding, your grate-Whenever he approached a bed of ful heart shall sing, "Now mine eye sickness in his plain affectionate manner, weary eyes hopefully looked up to him, knowing that he would supply O my soul? and why art thou disall that human skill could offer. His quieted in me? hope thou in God! for labor and care belonged to the sick. I shall yet praise Him for the help of By day and by night, in storm and his countenance and Him who is the rain, in burning heat and biting cold, health of my countenance and my God. "What I do thou knowest not now but thou shalt know hereafter," said his earnest and faithful labor he built Jesus. How good of God that he per mitted your brother to have the services of a loving brother and sister in his affliction, as well as those of should have had the attention of a faithful physicians and nurses, who physician, he would not neglect his ministered unto him even unto death, patients. His profession, his patients and the sympathy of a loving communwere his only care. He wanted to ity. How much better, than, as is the soothe the pains of others, and had case with many, if he had been thrown no time to think of himself. And upon a cold and heartless and unsympathetic world. Hard as it is for vice which he badly needed it was you to give him up, how good of God too late. After all loving hands and to have relieved him from any further medical skill could do to save him suffering and pain and take him to for his loved ones, for those who so where there shall be no more death, sorely needed him, after a few brief neither sorrow nor crying, neither days of suffering, one morning as the shall there be any more pain; for the former things have passed away. May zon his spirit took its flight from its God help you to bow to His Holy Will, weakened earthly abode and soared and to say "Thy Will be done," remembering also that comforting word of Jesus which he spake to Mary and Martha when their brother was cold in death: "I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth on me Jonathan; very pleasant hast thou though he were dead yet shall he live, been unto me." er die," Whatever else we may not know, we may, receiving and believ-ing the Bible to be God's eternal truth, with a heart filled with faith, say with Job: "I know that my Re-demer liveth, and after my skin, even this body is destroyed then without my flesh shall I see God." Job. 19:25-

And His resurrection is the pledge for our resurrection. There is a beautiful incident in the life of Catharine Tait. Her son Crawford had reached manhood, having been pre took him." When the burial service was over, his mother stood close a the grave-head and as she looked into dence to the contrary) that during that grave where the hopes of a life were buried, she said in a loud but > fort such faith brings to us. In conclusion, beloved brother and sisters of the departed, let me say to you the words of Jesus, "Weep not. As a good gardener, who when winter approaches takes up his tender plants sensible husbandman, when he sees the dark clouds approaching hastens with his sheaves to the garner, so God has hastened with your brother out of this evil life. He has been suddenly snatched away from every adversity and all misery and affliction and distress and wretcheaness of this world; from sin into righteousness; from weakness into perfection; from storm into silence; from sorrow to joy; from death into life and into that rest which shall never more be disturbed by the call of human illness. That is our hope and confidence. May the removal of your loved and cherished brother serve to direct your affections heaven-ward that you may seek those things which are above, and where we hope we may all be reunited with those who are not dead but have simply gone before. It is a common remark, that no man is necessary to society. We some times think as we see great talents, great efforts, distinguished ability in our public men, that they have be come so essential to the life of the republic, so necessary to human advancement, that when they drop out their places cannot be filled. We look at a man today in vigor and in strength, and we see that he occupies a commanding position in legislation and the consequent depravity of the human race created man. Is it not a we feel that his loss would be irrepwe must lay away one who, according to our way of thinking and figurlog chould have not many according to our way of thinking and figurlog chould have not many according to the must lay away one who, according to our way of thinking and figurlog chould have not many according to the must lay away one who, according to the must lay away of thinking and figurlog chould have not must lay away one who, according to the must lay away of thinking and figurlog chould have not must lay away one who, according to the must lay away of thinking and figurlog chould have not must lay away one who, according to the must lay away of thinking and figurlog chould have not must lay away one who according to the must lay away of thinking and figurlog chould have not must lay away one who according to the must lay away of thinking and figurlog chould have not must lay away one who according to the must lay away one who according to the must lay away of thinking and figurlog chould have not must lay away one who according to the must lay away of the must lay thread suddenly snaps: He is gone; yet on the morrow some one of the living steps into his place and we say "How soon he is forgotten." In a sense this is true, and yet in another sense it is not true. Every good and true man as well as every great man is essential and necessary to society Every man who lives a good and true life becomes a part of society, part of the present and part of the future history of the community in which he lived and dled. The influence of a good man never ceases. Death does not put an end to it; it goes on from year to year and age to age, and so being dead he speaketh. And now without any intention of exalting human -sayings above the word of God, in the words of the immortal Lincoln, "It is for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us, that from this honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which he gave the last full measure of devotion that we here highly resolve that this dead shall not have died in vain, but that we too shall endeavor as much as in us lies, to help in the alleviation of human woes, and that some day our life, too, may be approved by the Master, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, so ye have done it unto ne; and thus become worthy to enter into life eternal. Amen.

PIONEER WOMAN DEAD.

Mrs. Minerva A, Kirk, winow of the late William Kirk, and for the last forty-four years a highly respected resident of Boardman township, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. North Newton, Boardman center, Friday evening at the age of eighty-seven years. She had been failing grad-Mrs. Kirk was the daughter of the settling near Wellsville There she grew up and was married to William It is manifest by His dealings with his people also. He feeds his people. He fed Jacob and his household. whom survive, Mrs. North Newton and

AMETHYST JONES

Copyright, Puck By FRED, LADD.

S ATAN IS very like unto Love," said Amethyst Jones, wiping the steam from his glasses and immediately sampling his hot Scotch with rare We at the club prepared to grace.

"In this regard," explained Amethyst: "Satan finds employment for the idle. I have often noticed that when a man is hustling to put through a legitimate business deal neither Satan nor Love dogs his footsteps or attacks his heart with that assiduity characteristic of the Fiend or the Goddess when a gentleman's days are days of leisure and his nights are filled only with sad thoughts and pensive yearnings. Single hour of unoccupied moonlight is often responsible for the birth of a Passion so momentous that one's inmost soul is smitten. I believe Byron expresses some sentiment along this line in his infamous Don Juan. "The Summer after the Summer of my perfect passion for Nettie Darling, the red haired beauty who wrote to me in pale blue ink, I fell in love with Emma Tipton, the charming daughter of the man who kept the very worst hotel in Connecticut. Some of my father's workmen were putting in a new baptismal tank at the Baptist Church in the town where Emma lived, and I was sent up there to loaf around, and watch the workman. Let me say right here that it was nothing less than sacrilege for the same individual to supervise the Baptist tank. and board at Tipton's Hotel. Emma's mother ran the dining-room. She was frequently braced to the performance of ner duties by liquor. She ran the dining-room better when not entirely ober. Emma's father had not been sober at all for twenty years. Emma waited upon my table the first noon after I had arrived at Tipton's. "Beefsteak, and Eggs," said she, in a voice like the gentle music of the flowing woodland brook.

"Yes," said J. gazing at Emma's carmine cheeks and lustrous violet eyes, and noting the glory of her beautiful golden hair

"Which?" said Emma, in a hushed

"Both," said I, madly. Emma admired my bravery; for her mother was within hearing. Emma's lissome, queenly figure swayed, and she glided down the dining-room with the grace of a sylph. I got "Both." There had been no objection other than a surprised snort from Emma's mother. My audacity had carried me far. I shall never forget Emma's soulful look when she placed my dinner before me. The mother had hurriedly retired, in quest of stimulants. It was not customary to serve guests at Tipton's with "Both." I wandered away from the repast with a desire to see more of Emma.

"That night we sat, she and L in a secluded corner of the hotel veranda, 'Uprose the yellow moon.' My arm twined itself about £mma's waist. 1 "You mustn't Oh, you mustn't!" breathed Emma.

"But, yes, I must," murmured L cy of new-born love. The first "man" Oh, Ye Gods! was ever youth of seventeen lifted higher in mad Devotion than I, when Emma's lips said that cherished word? Oh, Ye Gods' and again Ye Gods! My soul rose to the

"Those days linger in memory like clear up to the knee. mists of glory. Those mad nights of I lived exclusively in Heaven. Tip imagination. For one another we lived there is the fellow who regards a doland prayed and sighed. She gave me lar saved as a good time lost flowers, which I wore over my heart. We wandered and strolled by day in give ten for one is when he is swapdeep and wonderful woods. At night ping kisses with a pretty girl. we sat on the second story veranda have promised their wives in the last so close that no ray of moonshine ever got between us. And she used to get, was piled up in one place, the pile take me into her own little boudoir, would make the Alps look like a goat which opened off that veranda. Emma hill.—Cincinnati Enquirer. had a piano, and could sing. No voice among the Angels could be so sweet as hers. And when she had sung, she used to lay her fair head upon my breast . . . and I restlessly rockher to rest.

"Ah, my Emma! So sweet you were so wonderful your lips, so soft your voice, so clinging your arms that had I died, the death would have been better than endless years upon a dull, drab earth alone.

torn apart. The Baptist tank was done. Went back to the city, engaged to be married to Emma. I had five PROGRESSIVE CANDIDATE FOR locks of her hair. The other day, I found one . . . it was done up in tissue paper, with a faded flower that crumbled to dust at the touch-

Amethyst Jones' voice sank so low that we leaned forward, to hear his next words. There was a tear in his dim blue eye. For a moment, no word came. Amethyst reached gently forward for his hot Scotch. "Here's to Emmal" he said-"God Bless her memory-she's in Heaven now."

"Yes," said Amethyst, dreamily Emma married a millionaire widower with four children. The children are in Hoboken, and Emma's husband's address is Rue de Bompart, near the Thamps Elysees, Paris.

"Heaven?" we asked, breathless

A Disciple of Emerson. Neurich Pere-But what has Emerson got to do with your giving your auto to that actress?

Neurich Fils-Why in his essays you gave me to read he says something about hitching your wagon to a star and I thought-

The Cause Making Headway.

Mrs. Wrights-Why have you put our pretty dolly in the parrot's cage, Dottle-She's a suffragette, mam-

MODERN DETECTIVE AT WORK

Little Show for Wrongdoer When the Up-to-Date Sleuth Really Gets on His Trail.

"Sir," said the great detective, "you may as well confess. I always find out everything I go after-if deduction won't work, I use force."

"But confound it, I tell you," spluttered the banker, mopping his perspiring brow, "I say I have nothing to confess! I have been at my desk every afternoon for the past three months, and I can prove it."

"Well, why don't you prove it?" demanded the great detective. "Because, no matter how hard the wind blows, she is still his mother," retorted the banker sarcastically "Is that a species of the capricornus hunkydory on your wrist?" cried the great detective suddenly. "Where?" said the banker, and flung up his wrist. Quick as a flash of buttered lightning the great detective seized it, stabbed it sharply with a small stiletto which he had concealed in his hand, and as quickly whipped off his hat to catch the resultant six drops of blood.

In the silence of his laboratory that night he examined them.

"Tannic acid! Just full of it," he exulted. "He could never get himself in that condition without attending tango teas every afternoon for months! Now to identify the brand of tea by the acid, thus locate the hotel that uses it, and in that way discover the woman-and presto, his wife gets her hee!"-Exchange.

LIVE FOREVER IN MEMORY

Loved Dead Who Have Gone Before May Still Speak to Us With Compelling Voices.

Who has not known old men and vomen, bent by the storms of life, bearing on their foreheads the scars of bereavement? They have lowered into the tomb with the sons and daughters they loved the most precious thing they had on earth. But there was so much kindness in their eyes and so much peace in their faces, that we are won, we know not how. And before the peace which their loved dead have shed about their heads, we bow as low as the hills bow before Mont Blanc. For you, young men and women, who perhaps have lost a father or a mother, no precept, no book, no example, however great it may be, can do as much as their momory at the bottom of your heart, if you keep it sacred. They are here no longer to follow you, to console you, to point out the way for you, nor to rebuke you by raising their voices against your errors; but in the silence their memory speaks to your hearts, and if you are responsive it will be seen that this compelling voice of absent loved ones is able to accomplish more with you than ever their direct advice and their material presence was able to effect. -Christian Herald.

LUKE McLUKE SAYS

There was a time when the corset started up near the collar bone and drew her to me. There was a long, ran down to the hips. But nowadays long kiss of Youth and Fire. Emma the corset starts at the hips and runs down to the knees.

The old-fashioned woman who used to take a two-hour trip on a horse car 'You're the first man who ever kiss and walked for another half hour ed me!" she half sobbed, in an ecsta call on Aunt Mary to find out how her and whose last known residence was rheumatism was, now has a daughter 1019 Hamilton Street, Cleveland, Ohio, who calls up Aunt Mayme to ask and whose address now is Times about her gout and has a fit if the Square, New York, General Delivery operator tells her the line is busy.

terribly embarrassed if a man got a good look at one of her limbs is be- Pleas of Mahoning County, Ohio, be cause she wears a skirt that is slit ing case No. 33915, praying for di-

If the man who didn't know it was desire and delight and Emma are jew- loaded would turn the muzzle of the drunkeness and adultery, and that the els hidden in my soul forever. I tell gun toward himself instead of toward said cause will be for hearing on and els bidden in my soul forever. I tell gun toward himself instead of toward you the truth, a small fragment of an innocent bystander, the fool killer the truth, when I say that Emma and could take a much needed vacation. The man who keeps his change in ton's hotel, the Baptist tank, and Em a little purse always acts as if he hatma's parents were but figments of the ed to open it. And, on the other hand The only time a man is willing to

If all the money that married men ten years and that their wives didn't # ab earth alone. "And yet, we were to be ruthlessly Hon. Arthur L. Garford

U. S. SENATOR

Will Tour Mahoning County

Thursday, October 22

Mr. Garford will be accompanied by other Progressive speakers. Every voter should hear the issues of the campaign discussed by these Pro gressive speakers. See bills for com plete route.

A man hates to be called a liar. But away down in his heart he knows that if he told the truth and nothing but Dottie—She's a suffragette, mam-ma, and is willing to go behind bars being a lobster he is lucky to keep out of hot water.

When a fellow has the reputation of the truth for an hour, his wife would have a hard time identifying his remains at the morgue.

Business Directory

DWIN R. ZIEGER, Attorney at Law 706 Wick Building, Youngstown, Ohio HARRY A. ERNST, Attorney at Law Hine Block, 5 East Federal St., Youngs town, O.

JOHN B. MORGAN, Attorney at Lav 1103-1104 Mahoning Bank Pidg. Youngs town, Ohio.

R. A. REARD, Attorney at Law and Ne tary Public, 301 Mahaning Bank Bullo ing, Youngstown.

F. R. MATTHEWS, Dentist, 15 Broad way, Salem, Ohlo, Col. phone 473-K Beil 567 R. Residence, Columbiana Com-ty phone 462-R. D. Campbell
CAMPBELL & SON. Physicians and Surgeons. Office and residence east side of Broad street, Canfield, Ohio. Tese

W. R. STEWART, Attorney and Coun-selor at Law, Diamond Block, Youngs town, Ohio, Practices in all courts are before all the departments in Washing ton, D. C.

LEGAL NOTICE

The State of Ohio, County of Mahon-ing, ss.-In the Court of Common

Mary Williams, Plaintiff, vs. George Williams, Defendant. The defendant, George Williams, whose place of residence is unknown, will take notice that the above named plaintiff has filed a petition for divorce and alimony in the above ac-tion, same being cause No. 33847 in the Court of Common Pleas of Mahoning County, praying for a divorce on the grounds of gross neglect of duty and wilful absence, and as and for her alimony she prays the Court to award to her the undivided onedivorce and I get a $10,000 fee-hee half interest off he said George Williams in the following described prop-

> Situated in the Village of Sebring, Township of Smith, County of Mahon-ing, and State of Ohio, and known as being and being Lot Number (755) Seven Hundred and Fifty-five, with all the improvements thereon, except poultry house, as said lot is disting uished on the recorded plat of said County of Mahoning, to which refernce is hereby made, and said George Williams be forever barred from any and all interest in said property. Said case will be for hearing six weeks on and after the date of first publication which is October 2, 1914.

MARY WILLIAMS. By Walter McMahon and Edward E. Miller, her attorneys.

Cough Syrup

The child feverish with a cold, running nose, tight or loose cough with wheezing or rattling of phlegm as it breathes, (mothers put your ear to child's back or chest and listen) should have Dr. Bull's cough syrup. Has No Morphine or Chloroform in it. It's the only right medicine to give. 25c. "My four children had bad colds and coughs. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrug cured them." Mrs. E. vom Lehn 670 E. 39th St. Brooklyn, N. Y.

SAMPLE SENT FREE Write for it today. Mention this paper. Addres A. C. MEYER & CO., BALTIMORE, MD

LEGAL NOTICE

Mamie Husted, residence unknowi will take notice that on the 13th day The reason why a girl would feel of October, 1914, Harry Husted filed his petition in the Court of Common vorce from said Mamie Husted, on the ground: of gross neglect of duty after six weeks from the date of the first publication hereof which is October 16, 1914.

HARRY HUSTED. By F. R. Hahn, his Atty. Youngstown, Ohio, Oct. 13, 1914.

LEGAL NOTICE

LEGAL NOTICE

State of Ohio, Mahoning County, ss.—
In the Court of Common Pleas.
Maud Ryan, Plaintiff, vs. Edward Ryan, Defendant.

The defendant will take notice that plaintiff filed her petition in the Court of Common Pleas, Mahoning County, Ohio, on the 8th day of September, 1914, praying for a divorce from defendant on the grounds of wilful absence and gross neglect of duty and restoration of maiden name of Maud Evans, and that she may be granted and decreed as alimony, Youngstown City Lot No. 4507, located on George street and having a frontage of twenty-six feet nine and one-half inches thereon, and extending back a distance of one hundred and eleven feet.
That said cause will be for hearing on and after Nov. 6th, 1914.

By B. K. DeCamp, her Attorney. 26-6

By B. K. DeCamp, her Attorney. 26-6

all I have to say is, before you adver tise your public sale I would like to contract with you and show you that I can deliver the goods. You have done more than a little to help make me. Thanks.

COL, S. B. PARSHAL, The Auctioneer, Canfield, O.

LEGAL NOTICE Lillian Marsh, residence unknown, is hereby notified that Lester E. Marsh has filed his petiton against her for divorce in case Number 33914 of the Common Pleas Court of Ma-honing County, Ohio, on the grounds of willful absence. And that said Nifty cause will be for hearing on or after the 20th day of November, 1914. 29-6 LESTER E. MARSH.

AUCTIONEER

Special attention given to Merchan dise and farm sales. Good service Reasonable rates. J. M. McCrone, H. D. No. 4, Youngstown, O. Office 205 East Federal St., Youngstown, O. Res-idence phone, Bell, 6164. Office phones, Bell 4598; New phone, 1098-A.

H. C. HOFFMAN CANDIDATE FOR STATE SENATOR

Mahoning and Trumbull District PROGRESSIVE TICKET

Pledge Myself to Support: National and State Prohibiton. Equal Suffrage. Improvement of Dirt Roads Pres'dential Primaries. Recall of Public Officers. Adequate Workmen's Compensation

$500 Exemption from Taxation.

Legislation which gives the people he right to select their own officials. Having been educated in the public chools of Ohio and a teacher in them for 9 years, I will support only such legislation as will tend to increase the fliciency of the Public Schools and will steadfastly oppose any diversion of Public School funds for any other

ELECTION NOV. 3.

Has No Competition

My Examination of your eyes is entirely different from all others in Youngstown. The people who know this are those who have tried others without success. When your eyes go wrong-I will be pleased to consult with you. I use

Dr. Fred B. Rebman

Neurologist and Eye Specialist, fourth floor, Stambaugh Building. Both phones. Eighteen years in Youngstown.

Prosperity There is no accident about prosperity, nor is it the result of luck or Prosperity comes to the man who avoids extravagance and 'eposits his surplus funds in a financial institution, such as this where he is guaranteed absolute safety and 5 per cent, compound interest.

A Savings Account can be opened with us in any amount from $1.00 upwards.

New Fall Hats Are now on display at Newman's

Hats for Nifty Dressers

Newman 26 N. Phelps Street.